

ARIZONA DEPARTMENT OF WATER RESOURCES NOTICE OF PROHIBITION OF IRRIGATION ON NEW ACRES

The Director of the Arizona Department of Water Resources has initiated procedures to designate an irrigation non-expansion area (or INA) within the boundaries of the Hualapai Valley Groundwater Basin in Mohave County ("Proposed INA") pursuant to § 45-435 of the Arizona Revised Statutes ("A.R.S."). The Hualapai Valley Groundwater Basin is the surface watershed area of Hualapai Wash excluding the watershed of Truxton Wash upstream of a boundary formed by the ridge line of the Music and Peacock Mountains. The area to be included in the Proposed INA is depicted in the map below.

YES I VOTE 4 this

EFFECTIVE OCTOBER 12, 2022 – Pursuant to A.R.S. § 45-434, irrigation users may irrigate only those acres of land within the Proposed INA which were irrigated at any time during the five years preceding the first date of publication of the notice (October 12, 2022). This limitation on the acres which may be irrigated shall continue in effect until the Director makes a final determination on the Proposed INA. "Irrigate" is defined in A.R.S. § 45-402 and means to apply water to two or more acres of land to produce plants or parts of plants for sale or human consumption, or for use as feed for livestock, range livestock or poultry.
