

Low Desert
Plants likely to be found in low desert Sonoran Creosote Flats.

Native Compatible
Plants that look and work well with low desert Sonoran plant palette.

Sensory + Bird
Plant palette emphasis on smell, texture, sound of plants. Plants that provide food for native birds are also prioritized.

Butterfly + Bird
Plant palette emphasis on supporting the life cycle of butterflies and humming birds providing food and shelter for various stages of life. Plants that provide food for native bird population also prioritized.

Desirable Year Round
Emphasis on plant material that thrives year round. The area will serve to demonstrate year round color. Note that this area of garden will receive some shade from building(s) during the year.